Dear Whānau

10 December 2018

Merry Christmas

&

A Very Happy New Year

Reports went home on Friday - so please ensure you have received them and have had a chance to read through them. The report includes a lot of information, Curriculum Levels, the step that you child is on and where to next and their attitude to school and learning. If there is any part of the report you would like an explanation on please come and see me.

Your children will have met their new teacher for next year this afternoon. Please ask them about this.
