Dear Whānau

10 September 2018

'Be Friendly'

Our school will celebrate
Maori Language Week

by reflecting on our School Charter which promotes the school being the Turangawaewae (a place to stand).

We do this through Whanaungatanga (relationships & connections) and Manaakitanga (generosity of spirits and respect)

and we will continue practicing our Te Reo.

Thank you for supporting your children as they performed in the Kapa Haka group last Thursday - we enjoyed meeting you and and look forward to your continued encouragement -
we are so proud
of Kapa Haka group.
